About Koalisi Seni

Indonesia can be a much better place, and the arts may contribute significantly to make it happen. Various studies have concluded that the arts enable us to be more logical, imaginative, innovative, and tolerant. However, we need a better arts ecosystem to reach that potential.

Koalisi Seni (The Indonesian Arts Coalition) is an association that promotes public policies to foster a healthier art ecosystem. To achieve it, Koalisi Seni bridges various stakeholders in its policy advocacy.
